Thompson Raissis Architects

Together our dedication to provide superb architectural service extends beyond the last design meeting—we aim to bring you years of living pleurably within your custom home. When designing a new home or reimagining your existing one, our rigorous design exploration assures your wish list will be fulfilled; our construction experience and knowledge assure each detail will be beautifully realized; our transparency with contractor pricing and negotiations assures construction budgets are trustworthy. Thompson Raissis Architects is a full-service residential architecture firm serving Fairfield County and beyond since our start in 1994. Over the years of being entrusted with the versatility of designing multiple home styles—including Classical, Colonial, Farmhouse, Mediterranean, Modern, Shingle, Tudor, and a Caribbean Vernacular—our greatest satisfaction is helping our clients to achieve a precious finesse—having a uniquely befitting and exemplary home for you and your family.
